From the Springfield Journal.

THE FOLLIES OF JOURNALISM.

It must have occurred to the thoughtful public, some time ago, that many of the great daily newspapers of the country have almost lost their influence over the minds of the people on all really leading questions. Who asks, now, what such papers as the New York Tribune, Chicago Tribune, St. Louis Republican or Chicago Times say? These journals were once great party organs. They laid down political principles to, spoke for, and were read by millions of people. For whom do they speak now? To what party do they give voice and direction? Certainly none. They speak for themselves or their owners; they agree upon nothing among themselves and fire their great guns at vacancy and the moon.

Years ago the New York Tribune was read in nearly every state in the union; the utterances of Horace Greeley were accepted as the key-note of the political war-cry by more people than were represented by any other paper or man on the face of the earth. In the west and northwest the Tribune of Chicago, from 1856 until the close of the war, spoke each morning for the Republican hosts whose deeds of independence as voters, and valor as soldiers, filled the world with their fame. Under its ponderous blows error was prostrated and the prejudices of the past shivered into fragments. In the midst of political revolution, the din and clangor of war and processes of reconstruction, it was, on the side of freedom, right and good government, worth a million men. All remember the wide influence, for good or for evil—we shall not say which—exerted by the Missouri Republican and Chicago Times on the Democratic party during the four years preceding and the six or eight years succeeding 1860. In the Presidential contests of 1856, 1860, 1864, and even until 1863, these two papers rallied the Democracy of the Valley of the Mississippi. In argument, invective and denunciation they commanded universal attention. Perhaps no four newspapers had more people who read them before breakfast anywhere in the world.

In Republican circles in the west, the Chicago Tribune was all but omnipotent. Its views and wishes in county, district and state conventions were almost accepted as laws. We hesitate not to say, that the history of the Tribune, for the ten years from 1855 to 1865, sheds imperishable honor on those who conducted it, and gives it a high claim to an equal share with its great name-sake in New York, in the work of wiping out the foul blot on the American name—African slavery.

But "how are the mighty fallen!" into what great convention now are the editors of these papers invited to dictate policies and lay down laws for political guidance? What party cares what they say or do? They lead none, represent none, agree with none. The baton of power has fallen from their nerveless grasp. They have gone to the rear, and are now only the chroniclers of news, mediums of advertising and universal fault finders. As political agencies they are utterly worthless, because they are utter Ishmaels. Their hands are against all parties, and the hands of all parties are against them.

Some months ago the Farmers' Party, so-called, assumed somewhat the shape of a political organization. All of the papers named were loud in praise of the new movement—not because the principles of the new party were approved, but because it boded ill for existing political organizations. The Farmers have held their conventions and adopted their platforms, and the queer quartette of newspapers alluded to, have cordially joined in remitting to a common political Hades all the financial theories and utterances of these gatherings. The same course has been pursued towards the declaration of principles and resolves of the Republican Conventions held in the West; and we suppose that like treatment will be accorded the Democracy, when it shall have assembled and sent to the country its platform of principles, in favor of an unlimited issue of greenbacks.

As already stated, no one cares now what views or opinions are given by these journals. They are so wholly independent as to have become wholly unimportant.

As a single illustration of their impotency, we advert to an incident in the State Republican Convention on Wednesday last. In partial harmony with the noisy demand of the Chicago Times and Tribune, and in this instance overbearingly seconded by the Evening Journal, the Committee on Resolutions submitted a resolve which favored a contraction of the greenback currency of the nation, by substituting in its place national bank note circulation—being the only hint in the entire series of resolutions submitted, in the direction of contracting the currency. On a motion to strike out this portion of the resolution, sixty-seven out of the eighty delegates from Cook county and Chicago voted 'aye, and thirteen no, and the motion was carried—most conclusively showing that the delegates cared nothing about the city papers—not even for their blackguardism or abuse.

So last fall, in the Chicago city election, the whole English-speaking press was overwhelmed by a majority of more than 10,000 votes.

The folly of "independent journalism" is so apparent that to discuss it were a waste of words. Such journalism is the play of Hamlet with Hamlet left out, and for that matter the ghost and queen also. No general on any battlefield ever retired to the rear and rallied the stragglers and cowards, who had thrown their guns away and fled the contest, and achieved victory by conquering both armies. Such attempts may have been made, but the results have been concealed from the world.—The general, to win, must have an army, disciplined, armed and brave—and then he must be brave himself, and lead. In union there is the strength that wins, but in isolation and demoralization there is decay, defeat and ruin.

So in journalism, to lead, to assail error and achieve success, a paper must have organized power behind it. It must feel that, as its clarion voice is heard ringing along the serried lines of its friends. And it can only hope to win as it shall thrill the hearts of those who hear its voice, and promptly follow. Where this is not the case, a newspaper degenerates into a sort of critical, carping, fault-finding, weekly or daily handbill of some one man or more, who have, on some particular account or other, been permitted to fall out of political organization and assume the role of universal scold.

The noise such journals make is sheet iron thunder, preceded by the glare of sulphuric lightning—mere noise and stench, very offensive, but very harmless. It is truly lamentable to see the papers we have named, charged themselves to the muzzle, day by day, and discharging their contents into the air. Still, it may be, that it is best and that others should exert the controlling influence which was formerly swayed by those great metropolitan dailies

HOW THEY SUPPORT IT

The Chicago Tribune of yesterday publishes extracts from a number of its Illinois exchanges, to show their position with reference to the Independent Reform movement, and also gives the following list of thirty-three newspapers which support the ticket:

Bloomington Anti-Monopolist,
Chicago Industrial Age,
Carlinville Democrat,
Centralia Democrat,
Champaign Times,
Champaign Union,
Decatur Review,
Earlville Transcript,
Fairfield Press,
Freeport Bulletin,
Geneseo News,
Galena Industrial Press,
Jonesboro Gazette,
Kewanee Independent,
Lockport Courier,
Mattoon Commercial,
Morris Reformer,
Macomb Grange,
Mt. Carmel Register,
Mt. Vernon Free Press,
McLeansboro Era,
Monmouth Review,
Oregon Grange,
Paxton Journal,
Pekin Times,
Princeton Tribune,
Rockford Industrial Times,
Salem Industrial Advocate,
Shawneetown News,
St. Charles Granger,
Watseka Times,
Woodstock New Era,
Yorkville News—33.

Those conversant with the country newspapers of Illinois will scan the above list in vain to find the names of the best known journals of the State. Of the thirty-three named we can only call to mind four which have heretofore been Republican papers, and only one or two of these have ever had anything more than an extremely limited circulation. Nor does the list make any better showing as regards Democratic papers, only one—the Jonesboro Gazette—being anything like a representative sheet. The balance of the thirty-three is made up of new and unknown journals, most of which are the mercst ventures upon the sea of newspaperdom If "the movement" can make no better showing among the people than it does among the newspapers it is doomed already.

From among the extracts published by the Tribune we cull the following, chiefly from Democratic papers, to show that the mongrel platform of the Independents does not suit the palate accustomed to Locofoco diet:

From the Carthage Republican—Democratic.

We have yet to see or hear of a single Democrat in Hancock county who indorses in whole or in part the action of the Independent State Convention that met at Springfield last week. * * * The leading minds who would have saved it from annihilation were not permitted to do so; and the Decatur platform was virtually adopted, together with an additional plank of utter, irredeemable repudiation, which the convention afterwards unanimously refused to explain or modify.

From Carlinville Enquirer—Democratic.

It now seems to be a settled fact that the Democracy of Illinois will hold a State convention. As to just what they will do, there is some doubt. We earnestly hope they will adjourn without making any nominations and thus leave the fight between Radicalism and the Independents. It will leave every individual Democrat free to vote for whom he pleases.

From Joliet Signal—Democratic.

The Independent reform platform is Democratic enough to suit us, and we believe will meet with a hearty indorsement of a large majority of the people of the State, if unity of action on the ticket can be secured between the Democrats and those taking part in the new movement.

From Ottawa Free Trader—Independent.

While we infinitely prefer the platform of the Independent convention recently adopted at Springfield to the hypocritical two-faced swash of the Republican convention just held at the same place, we are compelled, in candor, to say that the platform of the latter convention does not suit us, and that, before pledging our unreserved support to its nominees, we prefer to wait awhile and see whether some other political combination may not spring up, with a reasonable prospect of success, that shall be able to present a more honest and manly financial declaration. The robber scheme of inflation is one so fraught with evil, and evil only, that no party boldly inscribing it upon its escutcheon can hope for any but the very briefest lifetime any way, and to stop and bandy words with it, and dodge it, as the Independent convention did, is unworthy of a party of its high professions and aims.

From Quincy Herald—Democratic.

We believe that in this State, and throughout the west, there is a widespread feeling, among the opponents of the corrupt and dangerous party now in power, that only through the veteran Democratic party, with its thorough organization and undismayed hosts, can a victory for honesty, economy, and Republican simplicity be achieved. Thus believing, we see no other course for the Democracy to pursue than to prepare for a bold and aggressive campaign in every State this fall.

From the Macomb Eagle—Democratic.

The Independent Reform platform, as far as it goes, is good Democratic doctrine, and the only objection that can be raised against it is that it don't go far enough, and grapple boldly with some of the live issues of the day, which will be the political thunder and stock in trade of other parties during the ensuing canvass.

Cambridge Prairie Chief—Democratic.

The platform, so far as it goes, is satisfactory to the former Democrats; but would have liked it better if it had been a little more explicit on the currency question. They have a hankering after specie payments as in days of yore, and would have been glad to have had a "hard-money" plank in the platform. But the "opportunity" is not lost. The County Conventions to be held during the summer will probably supply the missing "plank."

THE St. Louis Republican makes this horrible suggestion:

"Did anybody ever stop to imagine what wild wreck and ravage Tom Collins would play if he should happen to break loose on Newspaper Row in Washington? Wouldn't be a single 'great reputation' left in the whole country in three days."

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

June Regular Term.

The following report of Mr. P. F. Lehman, who was appointed a committee to investigate as to the stock in the Pekin, Lincoln & Decatur railroad, made the following report, which was adopted:

To the Board of Supervisors of Macon county:

The undersigned appointed by your board at the December term, 1873, to enquire into the condition of certain certificates of stock which the county of Macon hold in the Pekin, Lincoln & Decatur Railroad Co., and to take such steps as might be necessary in the meantime to protect the interests of said county, begs leave to report as follows.

That he finds in the hands of the clerk of said board certificate of stock in said Company to the amount of $100,000.

That on enquiry, he has learned that said stock is practically valueless, the said Pekin, Lincoln & Decatur railroad having been leased for ninety-nine years to the Toledo, Wabash & Western Railroad Co. at a rental that precludes the hope of a dividend being paid on said stock during the continuance of said lease.

That such lease, under the circumstances, is regarded by attorney, with whom the undersigned has advised as illegal, and one that could be avoided on application of the stockholders in said Pekin, Lincoln & Decatur Railroad Company to a proper court; but he is further advised that little practical benefit could be derived from that course, as the controlling amount of stock in said Company is in the hands of a few persons, and the affairs of said Company practically in their hands.

Supervisor Davis offered the following, which was rejected:

Resolved, That this Board in a body visit the county poor farm to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

The following communication from Mr. Cantrill and John R. Miller was read:

To the Honorable Chairman and Board of Supervisors of Macon county:

We understand that the city is about to vacate the county lot now occupied as a lumber yard. We wish to lease the same, and will pay as much as the city has been paying, and would like to have the same as long as the county thinks they are authorized to lease the same.

On motion of Supervisor Camron, that the communication be laid on the table until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Supervisor Dingman offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Mary McVey be allowed five dollars a month for the support of James McVey, an idiotic boy who is in a destitute condition and unable to support himself, the amount to be paid being less than he can be kept for by the county on the poor farm.

A communication from the Commissioners of Highways of the town of Long Creek was read, asking the county to make an appropriation for the purpose of building a bridge across the Sangamon river near Spangler's mill.

On motion the communication was referred to the committee on roads and bridges.

The chairman laid before the Board a communication from the grand jury of the May term, 1874, of the circuit court, recommending the county to make some improvements at the county jail; also a resolution adopted by the grand jury, that the county pay David C. Webb such compensation as they shall deem proper for his services as clerk of the grand jury.

On motion the same were laid on the table.

Supervisor Hughes offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Messrs. Nelson & Roby be retained as the attorneys for Macon county, at a salary of one hundred dollars per annum for the term of one year.

The following named persons were selected by the Board of Supervisors of Macon county to serve as grand jurors at the August term of the circuit court of Macon county, to be held on the 1st Monday in August, 1874:

Supervisor Spangler offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, By the Board of Supervisors, that P. F. Lehman, the Supt. o the Macon county poor farm, be instructed to have the buildings on said farm insured in some good and reliable fire insurance company against loss by fire and lightning, and also to have the buildings on the poor farm properly lightning-roded.

The committee appointed to contract with some paper to have the proceedings of the Board published, report that they made no contract, and refer the matter back to the Board for action.

Whereas, Supervisor Hughes offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the county will pay seventy-five dollars a year to have the proceedings of the Board published in the three county papers—being twenty-five dollars a year for each paper.

Supervisor Rogers offered the following amendment:

That the county pay the three papers fifty dollars per year, to be divided among them, said amendment being rejected.

The question then being on the original resolution, as offered by Supervisor Hughes, the same was concurred in and adopted.

On motion of Supervisor Grayson, the Board adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Board met pursuant to adjournment, Hon. L. R. Morse in the chair.

Present—H. W. Waggoner, clerk; I. D. Jennings, sheriff; Supervisors Brown, Cameron, Coleman, Davis, Dingman, Grayson, Gage, Gillespie, Hughes, House, Hummell, Morse, McBride, Orr, Rogers, Ruddock, Spangler and Ward.

The reading of the minutes of yesterday.

Supervisor Gage offered the following, which was adopted upon the call, and the vote ordered recorded:

Resolved, That a committee of one be appointed to confer with some attorney or attorneys, to ascertain his or their opinions as to the legality of the county bonds issued to aid in the construction of the Pekin, Lincoln & Decatur railroad, and report at the next meeting of this Board.

Supervisors Brown, Cameron, Coleman, Davis, Dingman, Grayson, Gillespie, Gage, House, Hummell, Morse, Orr, Rogers and Ward voting for—fourteen (14.)

Supervisors Hughes, Ruddock and Spangler voting against—three (3).—Not present, A. McBride.

The chairman appointed Supervisor Gage said committee.

The proposition of Cantrell & Miller, which was read before the Board on yesterday, asking to lease the county lot, was, on motion of Supervisor Cameron, laid on the table until the July meeting of the Board, and that the county clerk be authorized to notify the proper city officers to vacate and deliver up the possession of the county lots now occupied as a city lumber yard, at the expiration of the yearly lease.

Supervisor Cameron offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the committee on public building be instructed to purchase all beds and bedding necessary for the premises in the county jail.

Supervisor Davis offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Sidney Vest be allowed a sum not to exceed one dollar per week for the support of Miss Goodman, a poor person. The Board instructed Sup. Davis to expend the money as he saw proper for the benefit of said poor person.

A communication was received and read from R. H. Park, the County Treasurer, and referred to the judiciary committee.

The folowing claims were reported upon by the committee and allowed by the Board, and the clerk ordered to draw warrants on the Treasurer in favor of the following named persons, and for the following amounts:

3 O'Clock, P. M.

[Reported Expressly for the Daily Republican.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—Both houses have worked with unusual energy and success throughout the day, and at 12 p. m. the Senate is engaged on the Geneva award conference report, and the House has taken a recess of an hour to wait for reports from the Conference Committee. They are now out with the sundry civil, tariff, and post-office bills.

The first conference on the post-office bill was rejected by the Senate mainly on the speech of Mr. Sherman in regard to newspaper postage. The position was taken that 1½ cents per pound was too low. The new conference has agreed to report prepayment at 2 cents a pound for newspapers and 3 cents for books, to begin next January; bound public documents to go at 10 cents each, and unbound the same as newspapers.

The Geneva Conference passed the House early, but at this hour the chances in the Senate cannot be estimated. The report agrees with the dispatch of last night, except that the actual loss of insurance companies over receipts is provided for.

The building throughout the day has been crowded, but excellent order has been maintained on the floor of both Houses, and everywhere about the building. Work has never been more skillfully directed by any preceeding presiding officers than by Senator Carpenter and Speaker Blaine, and there has not been of late such exemplary behavior on the floor during the closing hours of a session. Work began early, and has been continuous and very severe for all responsible for it. The President and Cabinet arrived at 11, and they will remain in attendance most of the night.

Thus far no jobs worth note have been passed, and few have been attempted.

It is the general verdict of all members on both sides that no appropriation bills have passed since the war closed so clean as those now passed on by both houses.

The Senate agreed to the Geneva award conference at 11,20 by a large majority.

The House, finding that conference on the most important appropriation bills cannot finish till very late, has passed a resolution extending the time of adjournment to 4 p. m. to morrow, and the Senate has agreed to the same.

The nomination of Representative Bass as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, was made at the request of Secretary Bristow, Mr. Bass represents the Buffalo, New York, district, and his nomination is regarded as an excellent one among all who knew him. He has not as yet formally accepted.

The President has signed the currency bill reported from the last Committee of Conference, and it becomes a law.

OMAHA, June 22 —Thursday of last week, a colored man named Johnson, aged sixty-eight, partially out of his mind, mysteriously disappeared from his residence. A thorough search of the city was made by the police, relatives and friends, but they failed to find any trace of him. Yesterday he was discovered a mile and a half southwest of the city with a lot of cattle. He was entirely naked, and was feeding on grass.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Samuel Myers well known in theatrical circles throughout the country, and the manager of Myers' Opera House in this city, died to day after a protracted illness. Mr. Myers was stricken with paralysis some three months ago, and since that time he has not been able to attend to any business. He has been an active member of the dramatic profession, either as an actor or manager, for more than twenty years. He was an uncle of Mrs. Edwin Booth. He was also intimately connected by marriage with Hon. John B. Rice, member of Congress from one of the Chicago districts.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The President signed a large number of bills today, including that repealing the Sanborn contracts and anti moiety bill. Up to midnight, the Commissioners of the District had not been appointed. An expectant crowd awaits the announcement of their names.

IMPORTANT DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT.

It is said that the decision of the Supreme Court upon the grab law does not invalidate the bonds, nor change the manner of the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds. It only says that no portion of the State taxes shall be diverted to the payment of that indebtedness. Already there has been collected from the tax payers of the State about $800,000, which, under the law of 1868, would be applied to the local bond funds, but, under the decision of the court, will remain in the revenue fund, and will be at the disposal of the next Legislature.

The court has also decided another very important question, and that is in regard to the legality of the assessment on the capital stock of corporations. In this case they hold that the capital stock of a corporation is a species of property, separate and distinct from the shares of capital stock, and that it is properly subject to taxation, and the action of the State Board of Equalization in raising the assesment of property in Cook county is sustained.

Mercury at 95 yesterday, in the shade.

. Smoked salmon and halibut at Imboden's

. Another sure indication of the croquet season being here—ladies ordering gaiters a couple of sizes too small for them

. . Jim Hart's new platform dray attracts a good deal of attention. It is from the shop of Wayne Bros.

. . Fresh bread and crackers at Niedermyer's

. If anybody wants to know the extent of Tom Collins' wardrobe, they can inquire of Bramble, of the Decatur Steam Laundry, as we understand that Tom has his washing done at that establishment

For choice canned fruit go to J Ullrich & Co's.

. Daylight disappears now at 9 o'clock in the evening and re-appears at 3 in the morning, leaving only six hours to the exclusive monopoly of the moon and stars

. The Irish Benevolent Society is making extensive preparations for celebrating the fourth of July at the fair grounds. We call attention to their advertisement which appears in our columns to day, and which gives all the details of the programme.

Jack & Son have just received a fresh supply of choice teas

. . A fellow slightly muddled with "benzine was passing one of our hardware stores the other day and noticed a placard hanging at the window with "Cast Iron Sinks" printed upon it in large letters—After contemplating the card for a moment he remarked, "Wha what d d—d fool don t know that ca cast iron will sink!"

Those superb and fragrant perfumeries at Clint Armstrong s are all the go—Ladies who have used them will have no other

A certain man in town who is quite an expert fiddler, asked his daughter why she would persist in using paint. The fair one, vigorously tapping the carpet with her foot replied, "For the same reason, pa, that you use rosin—to help me draw my beau"

...Go and examine those latest styles of ladies' boots just received by J P Marsh. Men s boots made to order, and perfect fits warranted

Among the most active in the search for Tom Collins last evening war Farmer Kern, who we understand spent most of the night in following him from place to place. He was close upon Tom's heels all the while, but the fellow managed to keep about five minutes ahead of the farmer

...Twelve passenger coaches of our citizens are ticketed for the Episcopal excursion to Springfield to-morrow, starting from the Water street crossing at 7 o'clock, sharp. The pleasant feature of this excursion is that, although large, it gives to private parties a delightful chance to spend the day in a cool and shady park, away from the heart and the heat of the city

. . Samuels & Co. are now occupying the whole lower floor of their building, with a complete stock of groceries. Call and see [jun13 dtf

. . A lady asked ex-Mayor Forstmyer, on Sunday, if he had seen Tom Collins. The reply made by the distinguished Teuton was the same answer he has been heard to utter so often in the last fifteen or twenty years—in fact, the phrase was the first English one he ever learned.

The proprietors of the business houses on Water and Merchant streets, are having two wells sunk in the rear of J R Race & Co's store, for the purpose of draining away the waste water from that locality. The wells are being bored with the patent well auger

About thirty of our citizens left on the excursion train this morning for Chicago

. Jim Spangler not only hunted Tom Collins yesterday, but found him, and says he sold him a reaper. This shows that the ubiquitous Tom is "with us in the movement."

Grand Masonic Picnic.—The Masonic fraternity of Macon will hold a picnic in Walker s Grove, two miles south of Macon to-morrow. An excursion train will leave Decatur for the grove about 9 o'clock, a m and will leave the grove to return about 4 o'clock, p m. Elder Haynes and Major Nelson will deliver addresses on the occasion.

Excursion To-morrow.—The excursion to Springfield under the auspices of the Episcopal Church, which takes place to morrow, bids fair to be one of the largest of the season. The objects of interest to be visited by those who go on this trip are numerous and attractive. The visit to Oak Ridge Cemetery will be a matter of great interest to those who have never seen the Lincoln monument. The committee having the matter in charge have secured ample coach accommodations, so that all may have comfortable seats, and nothing has been omitted that can add to the comfort and pleasure of those who go. The train will leave Decatur at 7 o'clock, a m, sharp, and will leave Springfield to return at 7 o'clock in the evening. $1.30 pays the bill, including fare to Oak Ridge Cemetery on the street cars. All are invited to attend the excursion, and are assured of a pleasant time

Tom Collins Still Among Us.—This individual kept up his nefarious business of slandering our citizens all day yesterday. In the course of the afternoon several had occasion to hunt him for the purpose of taking him to task for slanderous words spoken, but we believe that he succeeded in keeping out of the way of his pursuers. In several instances he came well nigh being caught, having left certain places but a very few moments before the arrival of those who were hunting him—His movements are watched to day with the utmost vigilance

It looks like the 4th of July at Miller s show windows as you pass by. He has a large and well selected stock of brilliant fireworks on hand for the great National Holiday 23 d5t

The I., B. & W R'y will sell round trip tickets at excursion rates from and to all stations on their main line, Havana extension and Decatur branch on July 4th. A Slight Unpleasantness—Immediately after dinner to day, Mr Nichols, proprietor of the Pennsylvania House, got into an altercation with one of his boarders by the name of McClure, and put him out of the house, following up that operation with several heavy blows, while the fellow was making his way across the street. A bloody nose and bruised face were the results of the skirmish so far as McClure was concerned. Nichols came out of the encounter apparently without a scratch

A Popular Lecture—On Wednesday evening of this week Mrs Harper, a colored lady from Boston, will lecture at the court house. This lady has lectured in Portland, Boston, Philadelphia, Worcester, Cincinnati, Brooklyn, and other large cities, in all of which places the press speaks in the most enthusiastically complimentary terms of her ability and genius as a lecturer. An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged, which is certainly a very low figure, considering the ability of the lecturer, who is spoken of by the press of the cities named as fully equaling, in both the matter and manner of her lectures, Miss Dickinson, Mrs Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and others of equal note—We hope the house may be crowded, as it is not often that an opportunity occurs to hear so talented a female speaker.

...Mercury at 95 yesterday, in the shade.

...Smoked salmon and halibut at Imboden's.

...Another sure indication of the croquet season being here—ladies ordering gaiters a couple of sizes too small for them.

...Jim Hart's new platform dray attracts a good deal of attention. It is from the shop of Wayne Bros.

...Fresh bread and crackers at Niedermyer's.

...If anybody wants to know the extent of Tom Collins' wardrobe, they can inquire of Bramble, of the Decatur Steam Laundry, as we understand that Tom has his washing done at that establishment.

...For choice canned fruit go to J. Ullrich & Co's.

.. Daylight disappears now at 9 o'clock in the evening and re-appears at 3 in the morning, leaving only six hours to the exclusive monopoly of the moon and stars.

...The Irish Benevolent Society is making extensive preparations for celebrating the fourth of July at the fair grounds. We call attention to their advertisement which appears in our columns to-day, and which gives all the details of the programme.

...Jack & Son have just received a fresh supply of choice teas.

....A fellow slightly muddled with "benzine" was passing one of our hardware stores the other day and noticed a placard hanging at the window with "Cast Iron Sinks" printed upon it in large letters.—After contemplating the card for a moment he remarked, "Wha-what d-d—d fool don't know that ca cast iron will sink!"

...Those superb and fragrant perfumeries at Clint. Armstrong's are all the go.—Ladies who have used them will have no other.

...A certain man in town who is quite an expert fiddler, asked his daughter why she would persist in using paint. The fair one, vigorously tapping the carpet with her foot replied, "For the same reason, pa, that you use rosin—to help me draw my beau."

...Go and examine those latest styles of ladies' boots just received by J. P. Marsh. Men's boots made to order, and perfect fits warranted.

...Among the most active in the search for Tom Collins last evening war Farmer Kern, who we understand spent most of the night in following him from place to place. He was close upon Tom's heels all the while, but the fellow managed to keep about five minutes ahead of the farmer.

...Twelve passenger coaches of our citizens are ticketed for the Episcopal excursion to Springfield to-morrow, starting from the Water street crossing at 7 o'clock, sharp. The pleasant feature of this excursion is that, although large, it gives to private parties a delightful chance to spend the day in a cool and shady park, away from the heart and the heat of the city.

...Samuels & Co. are now occupying the whole lower floor of their building, with a complete stock of groceries. Call and see. [jun13-dtf

...A lady asked ex-Mayor Forstmyer, on Sunday, if he had seen Tom Collins. The reply made by the distinguished Teuton was the same answer he has been heard to utter so often in the last fifteen or twenty years—in fact, the phrase was the first English one he ever learned.

...The proprietors of the business houses on Water and Merchant streets, are having two wells sunk in the rear of J. R. Race & Co.'s store, for the purpose of draining away the waste water from that locality. The wells are being bored with the patent well auger.

...About thirty of our citizens left on the excursion train this morning for Chicago.

...Jim Spangler not only hunted Tom Collins yesterday, but found him, and says he sold him a reaper. This shows that the ubiquitous Tom is "with us in the movement."

Grand Masonic Picnic.—The Masonic fraternity of Macon will hold a picnic in Walker's Grove, two miles south of Macon to-morrow. An excursion train will leave Decatur for the grove about 9 o'clock, a. m., and will leave the grove to return about 4 o'clock, p. m. Elder Haynes and Major Nelson will deliver addresses on the occasion.

Excursion To-morrow.—The excursion to Springfield under the auspices of the Episcopal Church, which takes place to-morrow, bids fair to be one of the largest of the season. The objects of interest to be visited by those who go on this trip are numerous and attractive. The visit to Oak Ridge Cemetery will be a matter of great interest to those who have never seen the Lincoln monument. The committee having the matter in charge have secured ample coach accommodations, so that all may have comfortable seats, and nothing has been omitted that can add to the comfort and pleasure of those who go. The train will leave Decatur at 7 o'clock, a. m., sharp, and will leave Springfield to return at 7 o'clock in the evening. $1.30 pays the bill, including fare to Oak Ridge Cemetery on the street cars. All are invited to attend the excursion, and are assured of a pleasant time.

Tom Collins Still Among Us.—This individual kept up his nefarious business of slandering our citizens all day yesterday. In the course of the afternoon several had occasion to hunt him for the purpose of taking him to task for slanderous words spoken, but we believe that he succeeded in keeping out of the way of his pursuers. In several instances he came well nigh being caught, having left certain places but a very few moments before the arrival of those who were hunting him.—His movements are watched to-day with the utmost vigilance.

It looks like the 4th of July at Miller's show windows as you pass by. He has a large and well-selected stock of brilliant fireworks on hand for the great National Holiday. 23-5d

The I., B. & W. R'y will sell round trip tickets at excursion rates from and to all stations on their main line, Havana extension and Decatur branch on July 4th. For the accommodation of those who visit Decatur that day, Supt. A. H. Wood has given orders that No. 26 will depart from Decatur at 6 p. m. instead of 2:50 p. m.

The Wabash Line Still Ahead—Faster Time than ever.—The managers of the Wabash Fast Line and its Eastern connections, being determined to maintain the reputation of their line for speed, combined with safety and comfort, have decided to still further shorten the time between Decatur, New York and Boston, and will commence on Sunday next, 21st inst., to run the popular Lightning Express, leaving Decatur at 10:55 p. m., through to New York two hours quicker than before, arriving at the Grand Central Depot at 10:15 second morning, and Boston at 3:30 p. m.

June 20-d1w*

Established in 1867.—Recollect, the coolest, largest and best place in the city, these hot days, is at 28-5d MILLER'S CONFECTIONERY.

A Slight Unpleasantness.—Immediately after dinner to-day, Mr. Nichols, proprietor of the Pennsylvania House, got into an altercation with one of his boarders by the name of McClure, and put him out of the house, following up that operation with several heavy blows, while the fellow was making his way across the street. A bloody nose and bruised face were the results of the skirmish so far as McClure was concerned. Nichols came out of the encounter apparently without a scratch.

Ice Cream.—Persons wishing Ice Cream to take to their homes can be supplied with a prime article of rich-flavored cream, neatly packed in patented boxes, which will keep for hours these hot days, by calling at MILLER'S.
23-5d

...More than fifty millions of flies and mosquitoes were caught and killed in Friend's Fly Trap last season.

Half-fare Rates for the Fourth.—The I. & I. C. Railway will carry passengers from all stations on the line at half fare, on the 4th of July. Trains arrive in the city at 11:20 a. m. and at 7:40 p. m and will leave at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.

A Popular Lecture.—On Wednesday evening of this week Mrs. Harper, a colored lady from Boston, will lecture at the court house. This lady has lectured in Portland, Boston, Philadelphia, Worcester, Cincinnati, Brooklyn, and other large cities, in all of which places the press speaks in the most enthusiastically complimentary terms of her ability and genius as a lecturer. An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged, which is certainly a very low figure, considering the ability of the lecturer, who is spoken of by the press of the cities named as fully equaling, in both the matter and manner of her lectures, Miss Dickinson, Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and others of equal note.—We hope the house may be crowded, as it is not often that an opportunity occurs to hear so talented a female speaker.

DIED.

This (Tuesday) morning, at 10 o'clock, at the residence of her husband, on West Main street, Mrs. W. B. HARRY, daughter of Rev. D. P. Bunn, aged 40 years and 7 months.

Mrs. Harry had been in her usual health until within the past five weeks, during which time there appeared to be a general breaking down of the nervous system, which resulted yesterday in total prostration. Her condition during the past few weeks was not such as to cause any considerable alarm, and she was only confined to her bed about twenty-four hours, during which time she was unconscious.

The funeral services will take place at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, at the house, Rev. W. S. Crissey officiating.

Ayer's

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

JANESVILLE GRAPE

RIPENS AUG. 15TH.

STANDS THE WISCONSIN WINTERS unprotected. Recommended by the Wisconsin State Horticultural Society for general cultivation in 1874. What we have long needed is a good early grape. The Hartford has been the best heretofore but with bad faults. The Janesville is Hardy, is Productive, is Growthy every way as good as the Concord and ten days earlier than the Hartford. The Janesville and the Concord, we predict will run side by side, extending the season of that delicious fruit.
